

Managing Tenders, Specifications and Contracts

The Procurement Journey

This highly interactive Managing Tenders, Specifications and Contracts training course considers how your organization can identify and use the most appropriate procurement strategy and discusses best practice in developing tender documentation, criteria and evaluation. The course focuses on how best to deal with key contractual liability issues to minimize the risk exposure to your organization from cost and time overruns. This Managing Tenders, Specifications and Contracts training course also provides tools, tips and techniques on effective resolution of disputes to minimize cost and reputational risk exposure to your organization.

A large proportion of an organization's costs is expended on the procurement of goods and services, particularly where it involves a global supply chain network as is the case with most of today's industries and sectors. Using management best practice through the tendering and procurement process and in contract implementation is thus critical to ensuring cost and process efficiencies to your organization.
